

Greetings!

Vermont Conference

November 29, 2017

As we approach Advent we must remember - Mary was pregnant - by now - very pregnant!
Heavy - uncomfortable -
Her ankles were swollen and her feet outgrew her sandals.
How on earth did she manage to get onto that donkey
To travel to Bethlehem?
Or did she really have to walk there?
Hundreds of travelers congesting the roads.
Bethlehem so crowded they got relegated to a stable overcrowded with the animals belonging to the extra travelers.
When it was time for Jesus to be born
Mary was in pain - perhaps for hours -
Birthing babies is hard, painful work.

(Maybe that's why it's called labor! )
After Jesus was born, Mary was absolutely exhausted and probably asleep
When shepherd faces pressed against the window of this makeshift stable nursery.

In the midst of getting to Christmas - to get the baby born so we can celebrate - Advent gets robbed of its power.

Advent is about a people waiting in darkness.

Advent is about Mary waiting nine months for the birth of her son.

Advent is hard work and can be most uncomfortable.

When Gabriel arrived and said "Peace be with you" -

Mary was troubled and perplexed.

Instinctively, Mary knew that these words would change her life.

"How can this be?"

Yet deep inside the impossible begins to take hold - her senses were suddenly in tune with the world around her as her spirit was getting in tune with God.

She could say in the midst of perplexity and the impossible,

"I am the Lord's servant. May it happen to me as you have said."

Eventually, that initial troubling and questioning would be transformed into the "Yes" of the Magnificat.

'There is nothing God cannot do!'

Her HOPE is that a God who chooses a peasant girl

instead of a princess to bear the Messiah...

A God who chooses an unwed mother...

a social outcast to bear the child...

If God would do things so backwards...

then just maybe God could turn the world upside down.

The proud scattered.

The lowly lifted up.

The hungry filled.

Is God asking something impossible of your church?

Of the Vermont Conference?

Of the United Church of Christ?

Does God want to transform our lives?

All these centuries later, we still have a living God who is still speaking.

"Peace be with you."

And we must choose how we will respond.

Advent is a time to consider whether or not we are about the work of being God's people in this world -

invited to model a life inside the church

very different from the life lived outside.

Life out there is filled with fighting and division -

with winning and losing.

Life inside can model a different way -

a way of respect and care in spite of diversity -

a way where no one is a loser and all can experience

the love of Emmanuel - the God with us.

And we are invited to model a life outside the church that works to lift the lowly and fill the hungry.

While much of the world around us is frantic with holiday frenzy

While too much of our world sits hopeless in the aftermath of natural devastation and human violence -
It is essential that we take time to sit in the darkness of expectation so that we will glimpse the fragile God light that comes among us as we worship.
It is essential that we sit in the silence of waiting
so that we might hear the echo of angel promises.
It is essential that we get ready to see heaven open up and come down to us in the birth of a child - Emmanuel - God with us.
It is essential that we become ready to say with Mary,
"I am the Lord's servant"
and to sing with Mary our very own "Yes"
to the God who still yearns to bring hope, love, joy and peace to this earth.
It sounds impossible
but in Advent
God's impossible can begin to take hold of us
as our spirits get in tune with God.

The Price of Freedom?

WEEKLY SEEDS

FOCUS READING:

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Karl Rahner, 20th century

"Every year we celebrate the holy season of Advent, O God. Every year we pray those beautiful prayers of longing and waiting, and sing those lovely songs of hope and promise."

Walter Brueggemann, 21st century

"Give us the grace and the impatience to wait for your coming to the bottom of our toes, to the edges of our fingertips. We do not want our several worlds to end. Come in your power and come in your weakness in any case and make all things new. Amen."

George Eliot, 19th century

"It seems to me we can never give up longing and wishing while we are thoroughly alive. There are certain things we feel to be beautiful and good, and we must hunger after them."

Saul Bellow, 20th century

"There is an immense, painful longing for a broader, more flexible, fuller, more coherent, more comprehensive account of what we human beings are, who we are and what this life is for."

Madeleine L'Engle, 20th century

"Some things have to be believed to be seen."

Henri J. M. Nouwen, "The Wounded Healer," 20th century

"To announce, however, that the Liberator is sitting among the poor and that the wounds are signs of hope and that today is the day of liberation, is a step very few can take. But this is exactly the announcement of the wounded healer: 'The master is coming—not tomorrow, but today, not next year, but this year, not after all our misery is passed, but in the middle of it, not in another place but right here where we are standing.'"

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, 20th century

"Driven by the forces of love, the fragments of the world seek each other so that the world may come into being."

BE THE CHURCH
Protect the environment. Care for the poor.
Forgive often. Reject racism.
Fight for the powerless.
Share earthly and spiritual resources.
Embrace diversity. Love God. Enjoy this life.

---> What is the New England Women's Celebration?

The New England Women's Celebration takes place every 4 years at various locations in New England. It is held over (or near) the weekend of Mothering Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Lent, which is traditionally a time when the strict observances of Lent were relaxed for a day so church folks could return to the Mother Church of their roots.

"Working for a Second Chance 2.0"

Join us for "Working for a Second Chance 2.0" on Wednesday, December 13 from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 2 Cherry St, Burlington. This event, sponsored jointly by Vermont Interfaith Action and Vermont Businesses for Social Responsibility, will bring together the formerly incarcerated with local business owners and the Department of Corrections to explore better ways to provide job opportunities for those who need a second chance. This is a follow-up to the highly successful event last year in which ex-offenders and business owners shared their stories. Call Debbie at 802-651-8889 or email debbie@viavt.org for more information or to register.

Climate Change event

Come learn "What You Can Do About Climate Change" at Ohavi Zedek Synagogue (188 N. Prospect St, Burlington) on Tuesday, December 12 from 7:30 pm to 9:00 pm. This event, co-sponsored by Vermont Interfaith Action, will feature suggestions from Mayor Miro Weinberger's office and Burlington Electric as the city and state address this important issue in the wake of the U.S. pull-out from the Paris Climate Accord. The purpose is to help local faith communities to lead the way in engaging individuals and congregations to meet climate change goals. We will also light the candles for the first night of Chanukah, celebrating an earlier solution to an energy crisis! For more information, contact Karen, kpcorbman@aol.com.

"It has been five years since the terrible killings of the school children the Sandy Hook School in Newtown CT. The Charlotte Congregational Church will hold a remembrance ceremony on Monday December 11 at 6:00 PM in the Sanctuary. The community is welcomed to join us in prayers and readings to offer our empathies to those affected and to pray for policy and cultural actions that will reduce the prevalence of gun violence on our society. Please join us as we ring our Church Bell twenty-eight times, one toll each for those killed; the children, the teachers, the shooter and his mother."

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Bethany Church United Church of Christ Randolph, Vermont

<http://www.bethanyuccvt.org> Coordinator for Youth and Family Ministries Bethany Church, a lively congregation of the United Church of Christ, is seeking a half time (20 hours a week) Coordinator for Youth and Family Ministries. The candidate we are seeking is a person of faith who is committed to the church and to nurturing the spiritual needs of children, youth and families. They will have strong organizational and communication skills. They will have training and/or experience in providing educational ministries in a local church setting. They will understand and honor confidentiality and appropriate boundaries. This staff person will work closely with our pastor, Rev. Kim McKerley, and will have the strong support of the Christian Education Committee and the members of our congregation. Together we will work to continue our excellent youth ministry programs consisting of three fellowship groups (Grades 3-5, 6-8, and 9-12) which provide fellowship, spiritual formation and outreach programs for our youth. This staff person will work with us all to strengthen our Sunday School ministry to children and youth (ages three through grade 12) and their families. They will also be asked to reach out to our Bethany Church and Randolph Community families. We are a UCC congregation eager to move boldly forward in Educational/Faith Formation ministries. We would love to hear from all interested persons that we might talk together to see if the Spirit has a mutual path forward for us. We ask that references be provided if requested. Compensation will be commensurate with experience.
