

Welcome to E-Kit! Charri

Vermont Conference

April 18, 2018

The word for this week is from Doug Moore

First Congregational Church in Thetford members, Judy and Doug Moore, are traveling to Puerto Rico this week as UCC Partners in Service to join the Island recovery effort.

Along with several ongoing projects, UCC Disaster Ministries is working with the Iglesia Evangelica Unida de Puerto Rico, (IEUPR), to begin rebuilding church facilities and homes in eastern Puerto Rico. IEUPR is a partner church of the UCC/Disciples Global Ministries.

Doug and Judy have committed to serve several months to move the collaborative work along, acting as liaison between the UCC and the IEUPR Disaster Recovery Coordinator. UCC Disaster Ministries is providing financial support to the IEUPR to hire this coordinator and will purchase a vehicle to be used for construction. Disaster Ministries will also establish and oversee the housing and general leadership for volunteer groups.

Beginning in June, UCC Disaster Ministries will deploy recovery work groups for one-week periods in Puerto Rico. These groups will work on churches and homes, possibly in a regional hospital, and in the IEUPR church camp that is being made ready to house volunteers. Registration for work groups of up to 15 will open in April. Go to: http://www.ucc.org/disaster_disaster-volunteers to request an email notifying you when registration opens.

If you would like to donate money towards the recover effort, go to <https://transactions.ucc.org/CampaignForm/UCChrist/Hurricane+Relief>
You may also put a check in the offering to United Church of Christ with Puerto Rico Disaster Recovery in the memo.

Much is being done by many. Go to <http://www.ucc.org/disaster> for additional information.

VT CONFERENCE NEWS

Dear Friends,

Are you excited yet? I know I am! I can hardly wait for this year's Vermont Conference Annual Meeting. Some of my favorite phrases are "Once upon a time..." "Did you hear about..." "There was this woman who..." "A priest, a rabbi, and an Imam..." These are clues that a story is to follow and nothing communicates better than a good story. This is why I'm so elated. The theme of this year's Annual Meeting, "Sharing Sacred Stories," might just prove to be monumental.

Most every preacher I know is familiar with Frederick Buechner's Telling The Truth, The Gospel As Tragedy, Comedy & Fairy Tale and Benedicta Ward's Sayings of the Desert Fathers. Early on these small volumes inspired me to include stories in my preaching. A good story can delight, challenge and transform the listener. After all, Jesus was the master storyteller himself. His parables continue to inspire and challenge believers and nonbelievers to this day.

This past Sunday I included as part of my Easter sermon the illustration "Sunday's A Coming," made famous by Tony Compolo. (you can find it on Youtube) I first heard him tell this story early in my ministry and since then I have been keenly aware that "a good story well told" is a powerful tool.

At the end of April I'm retiring from the pastoral ministry after thirty-six years of service and two churches, but I'm not retiring from telling stories. At this year's Annual Meeting all of us who attend will have a unique opportunity to improve and hone the skill of storytelling. We live in a turbulent and divisive time. Progressive Christians, more than ever need to share the Good News, as we understand it in effective and powerful ways. Susanne Schmidt, our keynote speaker and facilitator, will share with us her knack for "telling a good story." Our world needs our message. Our world needs healing. Our world needs storytellers.

If you have yet to sign up for this year's Annual Meeting on April 27, 28 at Lake Morey Inn, it is not too late. See below for links for Annual Meeting.

Pastor, Barre Congregational Church, UCC

WE WANT EVERY CHURCH TO BE AT ANNUAL MEETING THIS YEAR!

WE WANT TO HEAR EVERY CHURCH'S STORY!

SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE!

In this time when every penny counts and our churches are struggling to even cover the operational budget we want to help!

We want to let all of our churches know that there are scholarships available for the registration cost of the Annual Meeting. We especially want to encourage our smaller churches to take full advantage of this. If your church has delegates please contact the VT Conference Office and get the information to apply. We look forward to having everyone who can attend to be part of this important time of Fellowship, Worship, Workshops, Speakers, and Conference business.

Please feel free to reach out!

It's time to register for the Annual Meeting!!!

Registration Closes on April 22, 2018.

Faith Story Café

9 PM - Friday, April 28, 2018
The Lounge at Lake Morey

After the plenary sessions are done, join us in the Lake Morey Lounge for an evening of storytelling by you - the attendees of the 223rd VT UCC Annual Meeting. Susanne Schmidt, our Keynote Speaker and The Moth VT's Story Slam Producer will be leading our first ever Faith Story Cafe. Interested story tellers will put their names into a hat and be randomly selected. Please lend your support as we share stories of grace together.

Seeking Story Tellers

Do you have a short story to share at our Faith Story Café? It can be funny, poignant, sad, life-changing, or anything in between. But it needs to be true, it needs to be your story, and there will be a time limit (probably 8 minutes). The theme is Grace, so your story should touch on the theme in some way.

If you'd like to further hone your story before the Faith Story Cafe, Susanne Schmidt will be leading a Story Telling Workshop on Friday afternoon, and will also be available for one on one consultation during the Friday afternoon break from 3:00-5:30 PM.

Sunday April 22, 2018 is
Rev. David Vanderlinde-Abernathy's last Sunday and there will be worship at 9:30 am followed by an Open House Reception from 11:30-2:30.

ARTICLES OF INTEREST

Annual Meeting is almost upon us, and, as always, we are anticipating the Peacemakers' Gathering!

Annual Meeting will formally begin at 9:30 AM on April 27, and there will be a break in the agenda mid-afternoon.

The Peacemakers' Gathering will be held from 4 to 5:30, in the Terrace Ballroom.

Please be in touch if your church - or one you know about - has a peace or justice-related program that could be shared during the gathering. There is so much that pulls our spirits down these days, and it is always balm for the soul to hear of the many things that are happening that allow us to be God's hands, feet and voice in the world, bringing us closer to a realization of God's Realm among us.

Please be in touch with Betty Edson (bedson30@gmail.com or 728-4057) or Bev Anderson (brandx@vermontel.com or 422-3484) if you would like to be on the agenda. Thank you!

WEEKLY SEEDS

Focus reading: John 10:11-18

William Sloane Coffin, 20th century

"Human unity is really less something we are called on to create than simply to recognize and make manifest."

Archbishop Oscar Romero, 20th century (Champion of the poor and prophet of peace and justice in El Salvador, he was fatally shot on March 24, 1980, while saying mass. He had just read from John's Gospel: "Unless the grain of wheat falls to the earth and dies, it remains only a grain. But if it dies, it bears much fruit" (Jn. 12:23-26), and had preached about the need to give one's life for others as Christ did.)

"A church that doesn't provoke any crises, a gospel that doesn't unsettle, a word of God that doesn't get under anyone's skin, a word of God that doesn't touch the real sin of the society in which it is being proclaimed--what gospel is that?"

Mother Teresa of Calcutta, 20th century

"If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other."

John O'Donohue, 20th century

"The hunger to belong is not merely a desire to be attached to something. It is rather sensing that great transformation and discovery become possible when belonging is sheltered and true."

Jean Baptiste Lacordaire, 19th century

"We are leaves of one branch, the drops of one sea, the flowers of one garden."

Reinhold Niebuhr, 20th century

"Nothing we can do, however virtuous, can be accomplished alone; therefore we are saved by love."

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin, 20th century

"Driven by the forces of love, the fragments of the world seek each other so that the world may come into being."
