The 102nd Clergy Convocation
Vermont Conference UCC
September 17-19, 2018

‘From the fig tree learn its lesson:
Parable Wisdom for Faith Formation Today’

The United Church of Christ is asking us to ‘Reimagine Theological Formation from the Ground Up’. What does theological and faith formation look like from cradle to grave in the lives of the people who sit in our pews?

Who will be leading us?
The Convocation Planning Team is pleased to welcome

Dr. Pamela Shellberg is a life-long educator and presently is the scholar-in-residence at The BTS Center in Portland, Maine where her work contributes to the mission of catalyzing spiritual imagination for transformative faith leadership. Pam is a New Testament scholar, having taught at Bangor Theological Seminary and Andover Newton Theological School. She has taught in the Maine School of Ministry and also in the New England Synod (ELCA) School of Lay Ministry. She was the keynote presenter at the 2018 annual meeting of NEAUCE.

The 2018 Vermont Conference Clergy Convocation will once again be held at Rock Point’s Bishop Booth Conference Center Burlington, Vermont!
