Message from the Conference

PROPOSAL FOR HOPE FUND FOR INNOVATION, IMPACT AND NEW MINISTRY!

At the Annual Meeting next week, we will be talking about a proposal for the Vermont Conference of the United Church of Christ to consider establishing and raising money for a Hope fund to encourage innovation, societal impact and new ministry in our midst. As we near the end of this pandemic and look to the future of a post-pandemic world, our churches need help to imagine new ways to be the church in this new landscape. We live in the most unchurched state in the country, and we look to connect with those who don’t go to church with the Good News of our faith. We have had experience with doing ministry in new ways during this Pandemic, so let us come together to invest in that! Our churches also need assurance that we as a Conference can look boldly into the future and see hope! We seek to have a major Conference initiative to raise the money for the fund.

The purpose of this initiative and the creation of the Fund would be two-fold. The first purpose is to help our churches and leaders in the Conference to see that there is hope for our future together. Throughout this COVID pandemic, we have seen many of our churches do innovative things with new technologies to touch people that they have never met in person. We have seen new ministries form among us to address societal issues, and the impact is being felt in our communities. Through the power of the Spirit in Jesus’ name, we will continue to see current ministries innovate into new forms, and new ministries come into being. This Hope Fund would remind us that God is not done with us yet through lives that are transformed and a society that becomes more just.

The second purpose of this Fund is to obtain the financial resources to support innovation, societal impact and new ministry in our midst as a Conference. We would invite churches, individuals and organizations through grants to contribute while relying on God’s grace and vision for the future. A gift to the Fund would be a foundational step towards helping our beloved Church thrive in the years to come.

The Board of Directors have approved the creation of this Fund pending a vote at a Conference Meeting, and so we will be introducing the idea of the Fund at next week’s Annual Meeting. We will then seek to recruit a Fundraising team made up of gifted leaders from across the Conference, both clergy and lay. We will then invite the Conference as a whole to vote on the Hope Fund at the October Conference gathering, and if that is successful, to then commission the Fundraising team so that they will begin their efforts in earnest in the Fall. When the Fund has been at least partially capitalized in 2022, the Board will create a granting group of four members of the Conference and one staff member to establish how the money will be distributed. The HOPE Fund will not be an endowment fund, but will seek to distribute all the money
The Board has also approved the use of two small bequests given to the Conference for pilot Hope Fund grants which are being given to New Ministry Team pastors and their churches. This group of seven pastors have met with me for the past year and a half to think and pray about new ways to do ministry in our time. Each of their churches will receive a grant of $2500 to use to share God's love with people who don’t go to church in their community by building relationships that flow out of their mission. They will then share the result of their pilot grants at the 2022 Annual Meeting to spur the creativity of other churches so that they will then apply for Hope Fund grants.

Our mission as a Conference is to love God and our neighbor as ourselves. United in the Spirit and Christ's love, we seek as a Conference to welcome all, love all, and seek justice for all. May this Hope Fund help us live out this mission, to the glory of God!

Peacemakers Gathering at Annual Meeting!
Friday, April 23 beginning at 3:30 p.m.

Meeting via Zoom will make attendance possible for EVERYONE who has a story to tell! What kind of story? We want you to share about a project, program, initiative or action your church is involved in that increases peace with justice in our world. Have you recently been working on or learning about: climate change, global ministry, food insecurity, advocating for marginalized groups, housing issues, racial justice, gun violence or the violence of war, human trafficking, migrant or refugee ministries, or just bringing people together to promote peace and love in your community? These are examples – the sky’s the limit! Your brief presentation will inspire others to consider how they and their churches might get involved in some form of peacemaking.
We will also pay tribute to the late Rev. John Nutting, who originated Peacemakers Breakfast decades ago. This will be the first Peacemakers event since his death on June 10, 2020.

Please email Theresa Lever with your idea for a presentation!!!

Thank you!

A Prayer for Minneapolis
by Shari Prestemon

Loving, Servant God, we remember your journey on this blessed Holy Week. You rode into Jerusalem on a donkey, palms waving as you passed, voices shouting their hosannas. You wept over the city, grieving all they did not understand and refused to receive. You experienced the spectrum of emotion: joy, betrayal, brutality, and anguish. You bravely entered into spaces brimming with tensions and anger, doubts and fears. You found solace in prayer & in community with precious friends. You knew bitter pain and yet focused your unflinching gaze on the fulfillment of promises that beckoned beyond it.

EASTER VIGIL WITH THE VIRUS -2020
An offering from Fred Taylor

Today is Easter, another sunny spring morning, and as I walk with Charlie, things just keep unfolding, with more to notice. A White-throated sparrow sings from a nearby tree, high in the branches, but I can barely see it. I'm wearing my mask, so I've left my glasses at home because they get all fogged up. I'd love to see the sparrow's tiny white throat as it sings away, but today I'll have to settle for the song.

I nudge Charlie toward the path that goes through the middle of the cemetery to get a closer look at the maples. We come to the big one with the most advanced flowers, where a few clusters have fallen to the ground. I pick one up for a closer look: it's like a mini-explosion of fireworks, with tiny flares shooting out in all directions, glorifying the sky for this Easter sunrise. Since there are no sunrise services this year, this celebration will have to do.

Charlie seems unusually preoccupied with the unseen scents that lie along thin shoots and old flower stalks left over from last year. His pauses give me a chance to pause, to reflect on all I've been seeing, hearing and feeling. It hits me that these morning walks with Charlie have been like mini-Sabbaths for me. The poet Lynn Ungar explores this idea that the pandemic has created a sort of “Sabbath” in her poem “Pandemic.”

What if you thought of it as the Jews consider the Sabbath—
the most sacred of times?
Cease from travel.
Cease from buying and selling.
Give up, just for now,
on trying to make the world different than it is.
Sing. Pray. Touch only those to whom you commit your life.
Center down.

So far my life hasn’t felt much like a Sabbath. I’ve had to master the new skills of online teaching, learning to do classes by Zoom and feeling the ground shift in so many ways. But today for the first time, I feel the potential for this kind of Sabbath, or what Terry Tempest Williams calls a “planetary pause” that may enable us to do the kind of reflecting and recalibrating that Arundhati Roy has been talking about. As Terry said in a recent interview:
“In the midst of deep suffering, I think there are these grace notes. If we can take this time for what it is, a planetary pause that I think ultimately can restore us to an equilibrium we haven’t known.” She goes on to reflect on what this “planetary pause” is asking of us: “It’s how we choose to live every day of our lives…And if we are going to survive with the earth, I think it has to be deep, deep changes. And if I’m wanting the world to change, I have to look in the mirror and say, "How might I change myself?"

COVID-19 NEWS

In light of: the growing number of Covid-19 infections in Vermont, increased hospitalizations, the onset of flu season, the potential spreading of the disease during holiday gatherings and the advice of our Governor and experts in infectious disease, we strongly urge that worship not be held in person until criteria for safe in person gathers have been meet.

Resources for resilience support clergy through COVID-19

It’s been almost a year since COVID-19 irrevocably changed United Church of Christ churches.
Members have become ill. Many never recovered. Countless buildings remain closed—some reopening, only to shut down again. Congregations worship and gather virtually. Clergy have to find ways to cope and carry on. As Americans line up for vaccinations, health experts warn against darker days ahead. Eleven months of uncertainty. The pandemic is taking an emotional toll on mental health and ministers are not immune.

GENERAL SYNOD 2021
Since 1957, when the first “uniting” General Synod gathered in 1957 in Cleveland, Ohio, to the meeting in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, in 2019, the General Synod of the United Church of Christ has faithfully convened a meeting every two years in physical locations throughout the United States.

2021 will be different. We are moving through a pandemic that has taken many lives. This pandemic has disrupted our routines and many of our well-established practices as we adapt to the new demands for safety and social distancing. The meeting of the General Synod is no different, and the 2021 gathering of the General Synod will take place entirely online.
